The proud father of Open Bidder a fully customizable toolkit that leverages Google Compute Engine to meet the high request rate and low latency constraints third-party developers face when integrating with Ad Exchanges.

You can watch my Google I/O 2013 presentation of Open Bidder at <http://goo.gl/qrLfD> and view the slides at <http://goo.gl/eLVtq>.

I currently manage and tech lead the front end efforts of the Google DoubleClick Ad Exchange out of the NYC office.

Prior to Open Bidder I worked as a Staff Software Engineer on DFP.
